Married Men Win Basket Ball Game

IT WAS A WILD CONTEST LAST MONDAY NIGHT, BUT WELL WORTH SEEING—ROY WIL-LIAMS STARS—MAYBE
THEY'LL PLAY AGAIN.

Well, they played that game of basketball Monday night, and strange to say, all the players are still alive, and, moreover, the married men won. Score, 20-17.

This contest, if you recall the announcement in last week's paper, was between teams representing the married and single members of the Narberth Tennis Association. It was played in the gym of the High School before an audience of about eighty people, including Jim Donnelly, dramatist, stage manager, and grand opera impressario, who became so excited during the contest and yelled so loud that he lost his voice for three days.

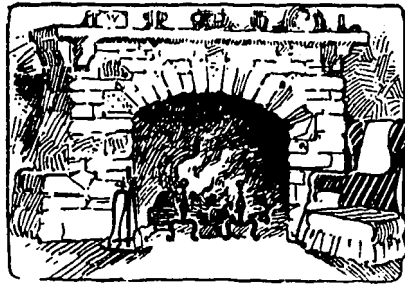

The only "casualty" reported was a sprained ankle sustained by Bert Simpson in the practice game played the Wednesday night before Christmas. Bert says that this accident gave him a nice Christmas holiday and didn't interfere in any way with his appetite on Christmas Day.

Bill Durbin took his life in his hands by refereeing the match. Not only was it a perilous undertaking for Bill from a purely physical standpoint, but it was hazardous in other ways. You see, Bill was a single man at the time the game was played, but last Wednesday night he was married, so as a result of this complication he ran a risk of losing out in both directions.

Anyhow, Bill was a good referee, and in the clinches and breakaways undoubtedly saved the lives of many players.

To say that it was a hotly contested match would give a very inadequate idea of how bitterly the game was played. The score at the end of the first half was 10-10, with Captain Wayne Harris, of the single men's team, entirely out of breath, and Sharp, of the married men's team, out for repairs. Scanlon substituted for Harris

THE FIRESIDE

Miss Lois Smith was a substitute Clerk in the Post Office during the Holidays.

Don't forget the date—Friday evening, January 14. Mid-winter dance of the Tennis Association, Elm Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry James Page were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Brooks over the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Brooks entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening.

Mid-winter dance of the Narberth Tennis Association to be held in Elm Hall, Friday evening, January 14.

Jefferson D. Yowell, of Windsor Avenue, has gone to Florida for an extended stay.

Get what is coming to you by arranging so that it will be sure to come. Invest in the Playground Association.

The girls of the Entre Nous Club are giving a home bake on January 8, 10-1, at the Y. M. C. A. Pies, cakes, rolls and candies will be on sale.

Doc. Howard was seen in the Adelphi Hotel last Wednesday evening selecting valentines in order to be prepared for the February rush.

Make and keep this New Year's resolution—set aside Friday evening, January 14, for the mid-winter dance of the Narberth Tennis Association.

Dr. Henry S. Drinker, retiring president of Lehigh University, who will live at Merion, has been elected an honorary member of the American Institute of Mining Engineers.

In sending in his subscription for the Playground, a citizen wrote he did not expect it would render him any personal service, but he saw where it would benefit the Town, and that his own house and lot would no doubt be worth more because Narberth had such facilities. The same fair viewpoint influenced a number of the original subscriptions.

Community Club Notes

NOTICE.

The chorus of the Women's Community Club will meet at 2 P. M. Friday afternoon, January 7, at the home of Mrs. Butler, 229 Essex avenue. All come promptly, please.

A regular meeting of the Women's Community Club of Narberth was held at 2.30 P. M. on Tuesday, December 28th, in the Y. W. C. A. rooms. Pine boughs, tinsel and festoons of red and green gave a holiday atmosphere which was further emphasized by the singing of Christmas carols and the reading of a poem by Mrs. Bachelor. After the business of the meeting Mrs. C. H. Shaw gave a book review of "The Story of Opal, the Journal of an Understanding Heart," remarkable because it was written by a girl six or seven years old. Mr. H. Hunt Vautier, of the University Extension course, gave a very interesting as well as instructive account of post-war conditions in our own country and abroad. In brief, he said:

"Just as a few rough characters were wont to give a bad name to a whole regiment over seas, so a few pessimists today are likely to talk the business world into a real panic unless we try to be optimistic and counteract this influence. Women can do this. Our present duty is to raise the ideal of the country—to act as individuals and not let the Government be responsible for all the burdens of post-war adjustment. Women, now that they can vote, should stand for righteousness, a square deal and clean politics. Before us lies a great moral problem. Men and women from 17 to 71 are looking like what they are not—dressing extravagantly, owning autos when they cannot afford them, wasting time and substance. The problem of the boys and girls from 16 to 20 is indeed serious. We can't say, 'Don't do thus and so,' but must point out the folly of inadequate clothing, the use of cosmetics, the looseness of morals, and also hold before them a true ideal. The Girl and Boy Scout movements start this, but have not proper support to carry on. There are old fools, too—those who must own this and that to 'keep up with the Jones,' all due to lack of moral standard."

Our old friends, Capital and Labor. Mr. H. Hunt Vautier declares optimistically, should arbitrate—get each other's viewpoint—in fact, use the Golden Rule. There is need of a square deal, common honesty in the business world.

Today there is over-production and hoarding. Business men should reduce profits as well as wages. The American motto seems to be, "Get the coin and have a good time." What a selfish ideal to hold up before immigrants. The number of millions spent by Americans on amusements, autos, candy, and cosmetics is appalling. We should use some of it to aid sufferers abroad. We are creditors today where we were debtors in 1914. We should use our wealth to help Europe revive.

England has her Irish and labor problems. France had one-fifth of her industrial and agricultural resources destroyed, millions of orphans need help and money value is low. Germany lacks raw material. Italy needs financial help to buy raw material. Serbia needs supplies and material. Her sad-eyed children look on America as a great nation with high ideals because they witnessed the wonderful relief work of our Red Cross, they appreciate the educational institutions founded without thought of propaganda, and they remember our missionaries who stayed and helped when all others deserted. Bulgaria is organized, but fearful of being cut up and overrun. Romania is cheery, a Latin wedge thrust into the Balkans. His religion teaches the Turk that Allah's favor falls on those who torture and kill Christians. So millions of Armenians have been killed. The survivors live in unspeakable conditions. One-third of Syria's population died for want of food. We can help. Our lives can be spent foolishly, hoarded selfishly, or used gloriously in service as were those of the unknown dead beneath the rows of crosses in France. The choice lies with us.

For God and Country, we associate ourselves together for the following purposes: To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order; to foster and perpetuate one hundred per cent. Americanism; to preserve the memories and incidents of our association in the Great War; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, State and Nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make right the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.—Preamble to the Constitution of the American Legion.

Comrades Sefton, Follin, Burkhardt, Ross, Auteriet and Simpson motored to Rush Hospital in Malvern on Christmas Day in G. B. Sefton, Jr.'s car to visit the ex-service men receiving treatment there.

1921 DUES.

Quite a number have paid their dues for 1921. It will help the treasurer to get the old year finances cleaned up if you pay yours now.

EX-SERVICE MEN'S CENSUS.

Members of the Post are taking a census of all the ex-service men in Narberth in order to ascertain the prospects for new members for 1921.

We most heartily thank the Women's Auxiliary of the Harold D. Speakman Post, 356, Narberth, Pa., for their splendid Christmas gift to the Post.

Christmas Parcel Post

The records show a substantial increase in the quantity of parcel post mail handled at Narberth during the period December 15 to 25, 1920, over the same period in 1919.

Following are the figures:
Received for distribution, in 1919, 381 sacks; in 1920, 414 sacks. Received for dispatch in 1919, 254 sacks; in 1920, 324 sacks.

Though a larger volume of parcel post as well as letter mail was handled the augmented force of clerks and carriers were able to dispatch and deliver everything as rapidly as it was received.

The letter carriers who serve Narberth desire to extend their thanks and express their appreciation for the many remembrances received by them from their patrons on their routes at Christmas time.

A JOB FOR EVERY MAN

The Narbrook pioneers can well be proud of the fine residential park which now presents itself.

And the entire Borough pays them homage.

When vision combines with capacity, there's precious little room for speculation.

The Outdoor Community Centre is similar in its aspects.

Six or eight choice acres are to come out of the wilderness into the light.

To provide the obvious needs of a constantly growing community—

A growth so rapid that the plot proposed is the last one left.

Hence the need for prompt action.

Compliment yourself, then, that you live in a town where men are doers, not hearers only.

The essential funds were assured in double-quick order.

Within a fortnight!

CHRISTMAS CLUBS

Be wise and put some portion, if not all, of the money you receive, into a yearly deposit, at interest, on a protective Life Insurance policy. Buy an Endowment.

FREDERIC A. LANAHAN

A trip to market is now to be made. Is your name on the list of the elect—do you believe that such ventures impose a general obligation—

And that participation in worth-while Community tasks is a genuine privilege—

A typical demonstration of American mutuality?

Don't let the opportunity slip you—and be impressed by the fact that as sufficient money is already guaranteed, it is the spirit of service and reciprocity which prompts the men already in to beckon you to take a part.

Which means in effect that no one wants to intrude Jones' job if Jones will take it—

Nor to do Smith's work if Smith is going to collect for it.

Come along, friends, come along.

NOTICE

Secretary of Board of Health.

5921 MEMBERS ENROLLED

The Main Line Branch No. 1, American Red Cross carried on a most successful Roll Call Campaign, enrolling five thousand nine hundred and twenty-one members for the coming year. The Chairman wishes to thank all the volunteers who contributed to the success of the campaign by their efforts in securing memberships, and the public who responded so generously.

The Ardmore and Conestoga Well Baby Clinics urge that all families having children under school age bring their children to the clinics which are held each Tuesday and Friday from 2 to 3 o'clock.

The bus for the Ardmore Clinic leaves Shea's Terrace on Tuesdays at 2 P. M. And on Fridays leaves Holland Ave. at 1:45, Simpson Road at 2:00 P. M., and Mill Creek and Merion Square about 2:30.

For the Conestoga Clinics the bus leaves Penn St. at 1:55, Buck Road and Railroad Ave. at 2:00, and Garrett Ave. and Conestoga Road at 2:15 on Tuesdays.

The Main Line Branch No. 1, American Red Cross asks that all contributions for European Relief be sent through the branch office.

There is great privation and suffering in Eastern and Central Europe and the Red Cross hopes that their appeal will meet with a generous response from the members of our community.

The Suburban Association of the Main Line, in a study of the organized bodies from Overbrook to Paoli, found that there are 542 organizations, or an average of one organization for every group of 94 people—men, women, boys, and girls.

Possibly this is the reason for many people saying that the Main Line is over organized, and shudder when someone mentions forming a new organization.

The organizations are of many types with various purposes. There are 26 organizations with a specific civic purpose, 17 social clubs, 51 fraternal societies, 8 patriotic, 23 benevolent, 5 commercial, 24 public schools, 23 private schools, 7 miscellaneous, 52 miscellaneous educational groups, 59 churches, 1 Y. M. C. A., and 234 church societies. The latter figure will be increased as soon as all of the churches are heard from.

The territory includes 21 distinct communities. Ardmore has a total of 112 organizations, Bryn Mawr 98, Wayne 61, Narberth 52, Bervyn 41, Rosemont 28, Paoli 23, Gladwyn 20. The balance is distributed among the other communities in smaller numbers.

The information was obtained from the Boyd's Main Line Directory. Main Line Federation of Churches, ministers, priests, ticket agents, workers at Community Centers, newspapers, leaders of clubs, school heads, members of lodges, librarians, storekeepers, township commissioners; each one had something to add to the list, because no one had ever completed listing all of the organizations along the entire Main Line.

An effort will be made to keep this list up to date, because the fundamental principal of the Suburban Association is to co-operate with all local organized bodies in an effort to develop a broader interest in the civic betterment of the communities lying between Overbrook and Paoli and in the country contiguous to the Main Line of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow townsman, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register. As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 3 lines; 5 cent for each additional line.

WEDDING BELLS

The beautifully decorated home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Graham was filled to overflowing with guests, on last Tuesday evening at the marriage ceremony of their daughter Mildred K. Graham to Mr. Charles Frederic Raker, of Galveston, Texas. The bride was charmingly gowned in white satin and wore the traditional bridal veil. She was attended by her sister, Miss Marian Graham, and the groom's brother was his "best man." The bridal party was preceded by a charming little flower girl. The ceremony was under a beautiful bower most artistically arranged and was performed by Rev. John Van Ness, pastor of the Narberth Presbyterian Church, of which the bride is a member. After the caterer had served the wedding supper, Mr. and Mrs. Raker made their departure amidst the showers of confetti and the best wishes of all. Following their honeymoon they will make their home in Galveston, where Mr. Raker is engaged in business.

The postmaster and regular employees of the postoffice received on Xmas day a novel gift from South Carolina. Mr. Dorinus Brownback, who is at Switzerland in the state, sent them each a beautiful pine sapling. One of them may be seen at the post office.

Members of the Narberth Tennis Association will receive tickets for the mid-winter dance next week. The date of this dance is Friday evening, January 14, and the place, Elm Hall, of course.

Fire destroyed the home of Samuel Lowe on Christmas morning. Our fire ladders were first on the job and had the fire almost under control when the chemical became exhausted. It was not possible to obtain water and before the other companies arrived the fire had gained such headway that it was not possible to save the house. The furniture, however was removed to safety and adjacent properties were protected.
